STUDENT SIDE

How are you feeling about English class this year? Be honest! I know English is not everyone's favorite class (...though I will try to convince you!), so I want to know what you are looking forward to, but also what you are not so excited about. Answer the questions below to help me understand your goals in class this year.

1. What was is your favorite book or genre?

2. How would you say you learn best? Why?

3. What is your greatest strength in English class?

4. What do you struggle with in English class?

5. Is there anything else you would like me to know about you?

English Class Survey

I am very excited to be starting the 2015-2016 school year! One of my biggest goals at the start of the year is to create a comfortable and enthusiastic learning environment. So, before starting the year, I like to check in with parents/guardians to see if they have any information they would like to share with me about their students since they know them best! Below are some general questions I have, but if you have any other questions, thoughts, or concerns, feel free to write them under #5 or email me at sdavis@latinpcs.org.

1. How would you describe your student's greatest strengths in school?
2. What interests outside of school does your student have?
3. Has your student had any reading assessment or fluency tests administered recently (F&P, STAR Reading, Reading A-Z)? If so, what information was found in those assessments?
4. Is there anything else you would like me to know about your student?
